

These are the CBS Formatting Requirements for Submitting an Abstract

+¹Brown, SJ; ¹Pierce, B; ² Smith, EA; ¹Baker, I
+¹Institution Name, City, State/Province, Country; ²Institution Name, City, State/Province, Country

Title:

Type the abstract title in upper and lower case letters. Use a short, substantive title.

Authors and Co-authors:

The author list must be in proper case and centered. Place a + sign before the name of the corresponding author. Please, type the author name as follows: last name, initial of first name and initial of middle name (if required). Names should be separated by a semicolon.

You may add as many authors as you need. Do not list titles or degrees in the listing of authors. The first author should be the presenting author. Correspondence from the CBS will be sent to the corresponding author only.

List all institutions following the author list. Use numbers to indicate the institutions.

Introduction:

The introduction must state briefly the question, hypothesis, and objective(s). The opening paragraph should be understandable to both specialist and non-specialist alike.

Materials and Methods:

Methods should include statistical techniques. For human experiments, approval of an institutional review board and informed consent must be indicated. For animal experiments, approval of an institutional review board must be indicated.

Results:

This section should include the essential results, including data, sample size and statistics.

Discussion:

The discussion should include limitations and conclusions within the framework of the stated question, hypothesis, and objective(s).

References:

References are optional.

FORMAT:

Leave one space between the abstract title and the author list, two spaces between the author list and the first section of the abstract, and one space between each section of the abstract.

Use Times New Roman font, 14 points for the abstract title and 12 points for the authors and the body sections of the abstract. Section titles should be in bold.

Indent five (5) spaces for the beginning of paragraphs.

Abstract should not exceed 2 pages. Submitted abstracts must be in PDF format to 8.5" x 11" (21.59cm x 27.94cm), with a 2.2 cm margin settings (top, bottom, left and right).
